

Angela Owens

Strengths: Angie has over 15 years of experience in client-serving and project management roles, both in for profit and high performing nonprofit organizations. Has a unique passion for nonprofit organizations and the impact they make on communities.

Impact: Supports the recruitment of top talent to executive level positions for a diverse set of nonprofit clients.

Before BoardWalk: Served over a decade as a collaboration/partnership manager for a high performing health nonprofit and, later, as a client relationship manager for a corporate real estate association.