

Laura@BoardWalkConsulting.com

Strengths: The ability to think in the big picture and devise a creative and effective strategy for meeting challenges. A driving core belief of “excel still more.” A trained counselor’s ear which helps distill client aspirations. The gift of finding the fun in life.

Impact: I’ve served BoardWalk on numerous searches for leaders who have gone on to drive social change in their organizations and communities. Designed and oversaw BoardWalk anniversary events and enhance BoardWalk’s social media presence.

Before BoardWalk: Completed clinical counseling internship at a university counseling center. Relationship manager for a global corporate real estate association designing content and programs for over 1000 members. Led volunteer projects attached to biannual conventions. Front of house manager at Wine Spectator awarded restaurant.